COSTA RICA - ESCUDO COINAGE UNDER THE INDEPENDENT REPUBLIC OF COSTA RICA (cont.)

*G35	-2 Escudos 1855 JB Fr8, H11. Lustrous EF-AU	250.00
*G36	-2 Escudos 1862 GW Fr8, H11. Lustrous EF.	200.00
	-1/2 ONZA or 4 Escudos 1850 JB Fr7, H12: In Costa Rica, collectors distinguish between two varieties of this rare type. The variety usually encountered has a "canal" or striking weakness on the obverse opposite the high-relief Indian girl figure of the reverse. This canal is characteristic of the 1/2, 1 and 2 Escudos also. The second variety shows very little evidence of this canal and is possibly an early strike. Collectors should note that most extant specimens are AVF-VF+ and quite weak.
*G37	-1/2 ONZA 1850 JB. Variety with "canal". EF+, superior for type	500.00
*G38	-1/2 ONZA 1850 JB. Variety without "canal". Bold EF-AU, RRRR	600.00

*222 -8 Reales 1854 AE Christopher Columbus Type. Elizondo #108A, Prober pages 84-85. Copper, plain edge, 30.77 grams. This piece created some controversy when Elizondo introduced it in his second edition, since some students felt it was nothing more than an expensive proclamation issue. However, the coinage law of April 21, 1853, authorized and described this first coinage under the Republic of Guatemala. Prober comments that this issue is indisputably "the rarest piece of the Guatemalan collection, and is so rare, that until now none has been cited numismatically nor reproduced in any book; it is possible to say that it is practically unknown." He then mentions two known pieces, one in the collection of the late Robert Friedberg and the other once owned by Manuel Aguilar. We believe this specimen was once owned by Francisco Angert, probably the foremost collector and authority on the coins of Guatemala. Certainly EXTREMELY RARE and numismatically important.
